Tuition fee exemption system for privately financed international students

Osaka Metropolitan University provides the following tuition fee exemption system for privately financed international students who have difficulty paying the tuition fee due to financial reasons (excluding those whose status of residence are not “student” and those who are research students or credited auditors).

1. Exemption amount

- Full amount, two-thirds, or one third of tuition fee
- Examination will be conducted based on your income and grades, and the amount of reduction or exemption will be determined.
- You may not be able to receive the reduction or exemption depending on the examination result.

2. Application method

- To receive the tuition fee reduction/exemption, you need to apply after enrollment.
- The application method and period, etc. will be announced around April 2022.

If you have any questions about this system, please contact us.
